Academy and Windham High in Free and Easy Scoring Game-Academy Loses, 16 to 13-Bulkeley Protests Three Men on Stonington High Team.

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE STANDING.

Two coaches are probably framing up a heart-to-heart talk after the game at Windham field, in Willimantic, on Saturday afternoon between the Norwich Free Academy and the Windham High school nines in their opening context of the Interscholastic league season. Windham High won, 16 to 13, in a loosely played game, in which there was little to choose between the two teams. The demoralization seemed to be catching, starting with the Academy in the first inning, when Windham High was allowed to score six runs, and spreading to that team later in the game. The Academy blanked Windham for the next four innings, and succeded in taking the lead, 7 to 6, in the first of the sixth, only to lose it at once when Windham piled on forg more runs aand then another four and two. This left the Academy hopelessly in the rear, although they kept on scoring in all the latter innings. The details:

Fielding features were a circus catch by Bill Wicks in center field and a catch by White in left. Pitcher Pebles of Fort Wright fanned an eyen dozen, but his support was shaky and the hits were picely sandwiched in with the errors to fatten the Hospital lily of runs. ACTIVE ADVANCING MARKET Looked for by Speculators Who Have Gone from Bear to Bull Side-

New York, April 50.—Various explanations are offered in Wall strest for the strength in stocks in the last two days, the most logical one being the change from the bear to the bull side of the market by astute and long experienced operators, who believe that the remarkably heavy financing of the needs of corporations in the last two needs of corporations in the last two needs of corporations in the last two weeks by banking houses foreshadows the development of an active advancing market, discounting the elimination of the few uncertainties in the current situation.

Ranking houses have taken in

Banking houses have taken in recent days a total of $104,000,000 in new bonds, and notes at terms that have not been burdensome to the borrowers. Forthermore, it is understood that the movement will reach large proportions before it runs its course. Operations of this sort are wholly in line with conditions in the money market, and conditions in the money market are moving along lines that suggest expansion in the country's industries ing along lines that suggest expansion in the country's industries at no remote pariod. USED We receive from time to time in our dealings with our customers a number of used cars. Desiring to maintain our reputation for square dealing, we dispose of them only after they have been put through our shop, and thoroughly overhauled. Every part that shows evidence of wear is replaced by a new part, and it is our intention to make the cars substantially as good as new. Not only is the machinery overhauled, but the cars are repainted, repolished and finished like new, and where mechanically practicable, improvements of late models are introduced. When refinished, these cars are in every way worthy of fellowship with the newest of cars, except, of course, they are not of the latest models. Many people are willing to overlook the obvious fact that the cars have done a limited amount of service for other owners, and are hereby enabled to secure a high class car at a substantial reduction in price. Except for the personal pride of having a new car, few will deny that the rebuilt cars are preferable to new cars of less substantial make. Among the cars we have in stock, in salesroom
